- f) Ways to Find a Job

1.

How much sport do you do? Be honest! A lot? A little bit? Hardly any at all? None? Some sports can be a lot of fun like swimming, for example. If you do some sport together with your friends, you can really enjoy it. Or you can join some sports club. These activities will do you a lot of good, but they won't bring you some money.

2.

In Britain boys and girls sometimes get jobs to have some pocket money. Some get a Saturday job as there is no school on Saturday in Britain. Sometimes teenagers work in shops. British shops are open on Saturday afternoons. Those who live in the country often help farmers.

3.

If you look for some work to do, get a local newspaper. There you can read about those who want some help and are ready to pay. There are many people who need help in one way or another if you look around. Ask your neighbours if you can take their dog out. Or perhaps your parents' friends are looking for a babysitter?

4.

You don't have to stay indoors when you have some free time even if you have practically no pocket money. What about taking your bike out of the garage and going out with some of your friends? You can get to know your countryside, go on picnics and just try to keep healthy.

5.

In Austria young people don't usually have jobs to get pocket money. It is often given to them by their parents. But if they get a job, they can do the shopping for their grandparents or they do some work for their neighbours. Some help out at a petrol station or they sell ice cream or souvenirs to tourists. Others help in hotels cleaning the rooms.
